

GUIDELINES FOR ENJOYING YOUR VISIT TO THE Welcome!

We are pleased to partner with you for an enjoyable future trip. San Juan County remains in Phase 2 of Washington's "Safe Start" phased reopening plan which allows for masked, local, travel for activities permissible under Phase 1 and Phase 2, which includes outdoor recreation close to home. When planning your trip, please follow our suggested checklist for a safe and enjoyable visit. Thanks so much for doing your part to keep the Islands safe.

PLEASE REMEMBER TO:

PLAN

- Familiarize yourself with current Washington State and San Juan County rules and regulations on our travel advisory page: www.visitsanjuans.com/travel-advisory.
- Check our website for ideas on planning your stay: www.visitsanjuans.com.
- Make reservations for lodging, moorage, camping, dining, tours and activities. When in doubt, call or email.
- Find out what businesses are open on our travel advisory page: www.visitsanjuans.com/travel-advisory.
- Check with your host/hotel about rules for pools, fitness centers and common areas for guests—some services and areas may be unavailable.
- Stay home if you feel ill. We have an older, vulnerable population and limited rural health care facilities.

PACK

- Cloth face coverings or masks, and a bag to keep them in when not wearing.
- Hand sanitizer or disinfectant wipes, gloves, if you so desire (and maybe a thermometer).
- "Leave no Trace" when enjoying the outdoors – pack it in, pack it out: www.visitsanjuans.com/leave-no-trace

PREPARE

- Practice social distancing guidelines—stay 6 feet apart.
- Wear a face covering inside all businesses and public places.
- Public restrooms maybe closed or limited. Bring your own supplies.
- Adjust to limits in number of people in a space, such as restaurants or tour boats.
- Please be patient and kind, new policies may make things take longer.
- Subscribe to our monthly e-news to receive updates & information! www.visitsanjuans.com

We wish you a warm welcome and thank you for doing your part to support the health of our community.
